1) Approval of Current Claim

*** Motion by Cambridge, Supported by Radloff to approve the current claim as presented. All in favor. Motion carried.

CEMETERY REPORT: Ross

1) Burials

- One weekday cremation burial

Kenny reported that

- New trees have been planted on the cemetery grounds. Thank you to Dick and Marsha Henderson for the loan of equipment and Glenda Kirkbride for the help with clean up.
- Cemetery Sexton John Harding has requested a formal job description for the position, citing confusion regarding the scope of responsibilities.

ZONING REPORT: Jim Hacker

- Following a public meeting, the Zoning Board of Appeals approved a Land Use Permit allowing the homeowner to construct a shed closer to the road than normally permitted. Hacker submitted the Land Use Permit application, a site drawing indicating the building's placement, and the required permit fee for the Board's consideration.

*** Motion by Cambridge, supported by Radloff, to approve the Land Use Permit contingent upon receiving written confirmation of approval from the Zoning Board of Appeals. All in favor. Motion carried.

- Distributed information regarding a recent project by property owners CNC Land Solutions, involving the removal of six acres of woodland, land leveling, and the pouring of 110 feet of concrete adjacent to drainage ditches—carried out without obtaining the required approval or documentation.

SEWER REPORT: Jim Hacker

- The sewer project is moving forward. The project quote will be submitted on May 7th.
- He spoke with the homeowners on Gleason Street—who had previously reported a leak in their system—about the late fee and informed them that he would bring the matter to the board for review. Kenny proposed a one-time solution: if the bill is paid in full within the next month, the late fee will be waived.

WEBSITE REPORT: Cambridge

Cambridge reported that she:

- Added and archived proposed & approved minutes & agendas as appropriate.
- Added the Planning Committee Vacancy & Clean-Up Day Notices
